Approved Catalog Copy:

Judaic Studies

Based in the Department of Literatures, Cultures, and Languages and sponsored by the department's Hebrew and Judaic Studies section, UConn's major in Judaic Studies offers a unique interdisciplinary approach to the study of the languages, literatures, culture, history and religion of the Jews. Students are especially encouraged to pursue their interests in Jewish civilization by learning about the experience of the Jewish people within other cultures from ancient to modern times. This truly interdisciplinary approach, which allows students to include relevant courses offered by other sections of the department, is further enhanced by the many courses that are cross-listed with other departments and programs at the university.

All students are required to study Hebrew language. Fulfillment of this requirement depends upon the student's area of interest. There are two Tracks, each with a distinct orientation: Track A, General Judaic Studies and Track B, Classical Judaic Studies. While both tracks provide grounding in all periods of Jewish civilization, Track B emphasizes the pre-modern experience and "classical" texts of the Jews.

Students in Track A are required to have two years of Modern Hebrew (or the equivalent, which would include credits from Israeli or other "ulpan" programs).

Students in Track B are required to complete the single year sequence of courses in Biblical Hebrew, which prepares the student to read Hebrew scripture in the original.

Students in Track A and B are required to take 24 credits beyond the required language preparation in their track as specified below.

Students who are majoring in other disciplines and may not be able to pursue Hebrew language proficiency but wish to obtain a solid grounding in Judaic civilization are encouraged to pursue a minor in Judaic Studies.

Track A: General Judaic Studies

General Judaic Studies majors are required to pass all of the following courses. These do not count toward the 24 credits required for the major.

HEJS 1151–1152 Elementary Modern Hebrew I and II (8 credits)

HEJS 1153–1154 Intermediate Modern Hebrew I and II (8 credits)

HEJS 1103 Literature and Civilization of the Jewish People (3 credits)

Information Literacy and Writing (included in the required 24 credits):

General Judaic Studies majors are required to take HEJS 3401W Jewish American Literature and Culture in order to fulfill their information literacy and writing ("W") requirements. SOCI 2509W Sociology of Anti-Semitism may be substituted for HEJS 3401W with the approval of the student's HEJS advisor.

Four courses (12 credits) from Group 1 including one each from the (1) biblical (2) ancient/rabbinic (3) medieval (4) and modern periods, and three additional courses (9 credits) drawn from either Group 1 or Group 2.

Some HEJS Graduate courses that are open to undergraduates may also be substituted with the permission of the student's HEJS advisor. In addition, students may also take upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in other sections of LCL that have significant Judaic content provided they have been approved by their HEJS advisor.

Track B Classical Judaic Studies

Classical Judaic Studies majors are required to pass the following courses, which are not included in the 24 credits required for the major:
